Since becoming a member of our beloved sorority, my service for others has become laser-focused in helping my fellow sisters become the blessing they were created to be. I have held several offices and committee chairmanships. I have endeavored to serve our sorority and community with humility, love, excellence, and acts of kindness. Under the leadership of our Basileus, Soror Emma Turner and alongside our 1st Anti-Basileus, Soror Randa Trapp, I have pledged my time and talents in order to add value and best serve our illustrious sisterhood and the members of our community.

One of our Founders, Soror Lavinia Norman continues to inspire my life of service as she stated: “It did give me a thrill to see how the organization I helped found is still a growing thing and it will not die, so long as it serves all mankind”. Therefore, my motivation to run for another term in the office of 1st Anti-Basileus of Epsilon Xi Omega is to continue in service to all mankind. Serving others provides meaning for living, a purpose for giving, and fulfillment in knowing that your life made a difference.

I was led by an example of true service by my mother, a Pearl Life member, Soror Bennye Seraile. She taught me to never grow tired of doing what’s right, for when the season comes, I will realize a harvest of blessings, as long as I do not quit. I believe one must walk the walk of a dedicated soror in order to build capacity, therefore I was blessed to successfully fulfill the role of the chapter Grammateus, currently serve as the chapter’s 1st Anti-Basileus supporting the new six program initiatives for the administration of Madam Supreme Danette Anthony Reed.

If re-elected as 1st Anti-Basileus, I pledge to continue on the path that lends my full talents and abilities to help our chapter excel in service and work for the betterment of our community. It is my hope to increase the impact of the new initiatives of our illustrious sorority and accomplish the goals that will empower our sorors, elevate our community, transform our city, and exceed our highest expectations.

I see Soror Lavinia Norman’s pride-in-service in the sorors of EXO as we act as a catalyst that fuels impactful work and elevates the vision of sisterhood. As 1st Anti-Basileus I promise to fulfill my duty to perpetuate the values of our supreme mission in service to all mankind. Together, as we hold these values true, our chapter will continue to be a beacon of light that shines not only in our community, but well beyond the city of San Diego.

2ND ANTI-BASILEUS- RANDA TRAPP

It is with great humility that I again submit my application for nomination for continued service as Second Anti-Basileus. I am grateful to have been nominated and elected to this important position. I am also grateful for the tremendous support I have received. I am blessed beyond measure.

As Second Anti-Basileus, I have learned a great deal about our sorority, our chapter, and about myself. Serving in this capacity is as rewarding as it is humbling. Working with a group of dynamic, authentic, professional, sisterly women has made me a better person and better soror. I have enjoyed every minute and every challenge. And, challenges are to be expected. I view every challenge as an opportunity to learn, grow, and be better.

Leadership in an organization that I love with every fiber of my being is different than other types of leadership. The hallmarks of my leadership style within EXO are leading with love and leaning in with sisterliness. That coupled with my calm demeanor, sisterly spirit, good judgment, and unwavering commitment to EXO have made for what I believe has been a successful tenure as Second Anti-Basileus. On that basis, I humbly submit my application for a second term.

I am qualified and battle-tested to serve another term. I have ably supported both the Executive and Operations Teams. I maintain open and frequent communication with committee chairmen and provide support to build functioning, successful committees. I lead by example and empower each soror to lead her committee and further develop her leadership skills. Succession planning is vital to the health of our chapter.

I have a rich and active history with EXO and based in part on my previous election to serve as Second Anti-Basileus, I believe I have earned the respect of my sorors.

GRAMMATEUS-NIKOLE CARTER-CURTIS

Thank you for the opportunity to put my name forward for the nomination of Grammateus for EXO. I have been a member of EXO since June of 2022 and have taken on many roles since becoming a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. In addition to working on Bylaws Ebony Pearls Leadership Enhancement Team, and Audit committees, I have taken on leadership roles as Chairman of the Building Fund committee, Chairman of Floor Management for the 2023 Leadership Gala, and most recently Chairman of the Ebony Pearls Leadership Enhancement team. In addition to attending almost every business meeting since I was initiated, I have also been to every cluster, leadership, and regional meeting, too. I joined Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. to become a stronger leader, join a strong and beautiful Sisterhood, and to be engaged. I take my membership seriously and am committed to service to my Sisterhood and to all mankind. I have the skills, desire, and passion to serve. Most importantly, I am dependable and teachable. I look forward to a lifetime of service and am thankful for the opportunity to be considered.

Sorors,

When you ask about my character, the responses will include descriptors such as Reliable, Hard-Working, Detailed, Genuine, Organized, and above all...SISTERLY!! This is evidenced by winning the 2018 Kathy A. Walker Steele Outstanding Sisterly Relations Award as a member of the Alpha Mu Omega Chapter in Indianapolis. But why do I feel I am well qualified to represent Epsilon Xi Omega as Grammateus? 1) I was elected as Grammateus in my prior chapter and understand the importance of accurate record keeping, 2) As the current Anti-Grammateus, I have maintained our online chapter directory and enhanced our attendance process by utilizing technology to ensure an easy, secure process for our records, and 3) As a 25-year Human Resources professional, and current Sr. Director of HR at my company, I know that documentation and record keeping is extremely important and missing or inaccurate records can have lasting consequences. I have worked closely with our current Grammateus and will continue to build on her legacy of excellent and timely reporting. Sorors can feel confident that our records will always be reliable. I look forward to continuing my efforts to be of service to the chapter and our community by utilizing my experience and skills where they are needed. Sorors, I am committed to Service and Sisterliness, and you can count on me for a job well done!

We Help Each Other!

Respectfully submitted,

Soror Sheryl Truitt for Tamiouchos

I have a strong background in finance with 15 years in the industry. I enjoy working with numbers and budgets, accounting was my minor in undergraduate, and I was owner operator of my own small business.

I am trustworthy and responsible, and I will continue to handle the organization's funds with honesty and integrity. I have demonstrated these qualities in the past, such as completing assignments on time, following rules and policies.

I am a team player and a leader; I can collaborate effectively with the other members of the organization. During my term, I was able to assist the chapter in locating a discrepancy in a financial transaction and expedite the delivery of required documents for the Chapter audit with our local banking institution.

Thank you,

Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated
Epsilon Xi Omega Chapter
San Diego, CA 92114

Dear Members of Epsilon Xi Omega Chapter,

With great modesty and honor, I submit my application for consideration as a Nominating Committee Member for 2024. Per the bylaws, I meet all the prerequisites and requirements outlined for filling this role/position.

If selected as a member of the Nominating Committee, I will exercise due diligence in bringing forth potential candidates for future office seats and nominees for community awards by ensuring all runners have the correct paperwork needed and are appropriately vetted before being brought to the body for voting sessions and integrity in counting votes.

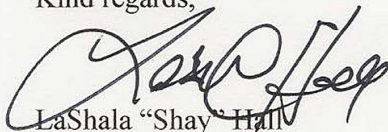

During my successful military career, I gained skills and knowledge that aid in my qualification for this role, such as leadership, attention to detail, understanding policies and instructions, effective communication, technical skills, critical thinking, problem-solving, teamwork, and open-mindedness.

In my current successful second career as a civilian, not only am I a leader and engineer but also a hiring manager. I review the resumes of potential candidates, assessing their skills and experience to determine if they meet the qualifications for the position. These skills and hands-on expertise also aid in my qualifications for this role.

Additionally, I work well with others, am dependable, know how to access resources when needed, have excellent time management skills, and can meet given deadlines. Most importantly, as a junior member of Epsilon Xi Omega, I am eager to serve. If there is something I do not know or fully understand about being a member of the Nominating Committee, I am willing to learn. In many cases, the best way to gain knowledge is by being presented with an opportunity and serving in that capacity.

I appreciate your consideration.

Kind regards,

LaShala "Shay" Hall

Greetings Sorors of Epsilon Xi Omega Chapter. I am Soror Yameeka Williams, a candidate for the 2024 Nominating Committee. I believe I am well qualified to serve in this role.

It would be an honor to serve on the Nominating Committee during the upcoming year. Over the past 7 years as a member of EXO, I have served as an officer and actively contributed to various committees. Most recently, I served as the Epistoleus (2021-2022) and also served on the Nominating Committee in 2020. I have served as Co-Chairman of Sisterly Relations, Parades & Walks, and Chairman of the Communications Committee. I have also participated as a member on other committees including: Leadership Academy/Deb Ball, Target 2 Women's Health, Strategic Long-Range Planning and currently serve on the Strengthen our Sisterhood Committee. Also, I have served as a guest speaker for ASCEND and the Youth Leadership AKAdemy. In addition, I attended the 2023 Far Western Regional Conference in Seattle, WA.

Having served on various community boards (including past Chair for American Heart Association) along with 18 years as a Healthcare Administrator, I possess demonstrated experience in leadership, communication, and collaboration. These qualities are important in fostering sisterhood and being effective in a leadership role. I am committed to service and excellence in all that I do and would bring this dedication to the Nominating Committee. Thank you for the opportunity to serve Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. and EXO.
